Would you like to represent your university on the national executive committee on SASSiT?

Do you see yourself becoming a surgeon? Would you like to be a leader in the surgical field? Consider becoming a committee member...

We represent the interests of surgical trainees on the following boards: ASSA, SARA, SAMA, FoSAS, South African College of Surgeons and the local committees.

Be the first to know about research collaborations, receive invitations to ASSA SAGES and SAJS SRS congresses, collaborate with international registrar societies, be the first to know about College exam refresher courses, the World Congress of Surgery Travel Scholarships, have the opportunity to mentor students interested in surgery at your local hospital and medical school, get involved with outreach projects and so much more...

ASSA The Association of Surgeons of South Africa
